

St. Athanasius: FAITH AND GODLINESS

This Festal Letter of St. Athanasius for Pascha 338 is written after his Tyre exile in 335, at the hands of his Arian enemies. Athanasius starts with thanksgiving for deliverance from his troubles and tells of how God deals with each us according to our needs. He shows us no place is really a desert for the faithful, and no difficulty so bad we should get greatly upset. As Paul says, we have Christ to strengthen us, and we are more than conquerors through Him (Rom. 8:37).
