To all the Choir Directors, Choir Members, Chanters, and those who are interested in Church Music

Beloved in Christ:

It is with thankfulness to God that we welcome this electronic version of the Kazan Menaion project thoroughly compiled and digitized by Mr. Christopher Holwey, the former chairman of the Department of Sacred Music.

In this electronic, online version, many of the typos and mistakes have been corrected from the original printings. This platform will also make it very easy when modified and corrected translations are made by our Department of Translations as we work to bring uniformity to our texts and service books. Therefore, we wholeheartedly encourage all of our parishes to use this online version of the Kazan Menaion and check it regularly for updates.

We are grateful to Mr. Christopher Holwey for the countless hours he spent on digitizing this project originally produced by the late protopsaltis, Mr. Basil Kazan.

Wishing you and your loved ones all of God's blessings, I remain,

Your Father in Christ,

GREETINGS IN THE LORD JESUS CHRIST

We are indeed pleased to introduce to you these volumes of hymnographic selections from The Menaion which constitute the latest addition to the liturgical music series The Byzantine Project of the Archdiocesan Department of Sacred Music. The purpose of The Byzantine Project is to make available in the English language and western musical notation treasures of traditional Byzantine chant. Other works in this series include the hymnography of Saturday evening Vespers in the eight tones (in a single volume, published 1974), Sunday morning Matins in the eight tones (in a single volume, published 1976), the major services of Holy Week (in two volumes, published 1979), the major services from The Pentecostarion (in three volumes, published 1983), and the major services from The Triodion (in two volumes, published 1991).

We take this opportunity to convey our heartfelt gratitude to Mr. Basil Kazan of Brooklyn, New York (noted Byzantine chanter and musicologist who worked as the transcriber and arranger) and Mr. Raymond George of Detroit, Michigan (gifted choir master and chairman of the Department of Sacred Music who worked as the publisher).

These volumes of hymnographic selections from The Menaion (Byzantine Project Number Six) are hereby approved and authorized for use in the parishes of the Archdiocese.

INFORMATION ON THE "MENAION"

This publication has been assembled in the best possible way as to expedite its use with a minimum of confusion. This Menaion has been compiled by the month, making it easier to locate what ever you want without difficulty. It begins in the month of September which is the beginning of the Church Calendar Year.

This publication must be used in conjunction with the "MATINS" and the "VESPER SERVICE BOOK" of the Byzantine Project. In addition you will find throughout some hymns from the Divine Liturgy.

The pages have been numbered in the top center to allow room on the left and right corners to identify the contents of each page. In the upper right corner you will find the date of the Service and the Name of the Service. For example it would say January 6 and underneath "The Epiphany".

In the upper left corner we have identified the service such as "Vespers" or "Matins", and underneath that what part of the Service i.e. Exapostellarion, Aposticha or the Glory etc. Along with that each page is identified "MENAION" in case it becomes detached from the work it can be identified.

In addition, before each service we have given some information as to how it works in conjunction with the Matins and Vesper Service books and gives the number of the pages where it can be found in that particular month.

If more information is needed refer to the "Nassar Divine Prayers and Service Book, starting on page 280. The Liturgical Guide is a further reference.

When using this material give yourself the luxury of working several weeks ahead of the date of the service. It is our hope that this publication will enhance your services.

The holy Prophet Daniel and the Three Children: Ananias, Azarias and Misael

Greetings to you all in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ!

When I was appointed chairman of the Sacred Music Department in February, 2006, I saw that we had already type-set Basil Kazan's Byzantine Vespers Project as he originally wrote it. Some of the accenting of the music was incorrect, but the ison was added, and we had a much cleaner copy of it all. I then began to proof and correct his Byzantine Matins Project, already type-set by +Michael Kargatis, with the opportunity to make sure the barring and accenting of the music and the ison were done properly, and that the text was according to the approved text from The Divine Prayers & Services by Nassar. This Project was completed and approved for use in 2010.

The next Project our department took on was Kazan's Menaion, the music for many of the Feast Days of the Saints and the 9 fixed Major Feast Days of the Orthodox Church celebrated throughout the year, since we discovered back then that it was out of print. This has been a 5 year project, now completed at the end of 2015. The music presented here in each of the 12 months of the Menaion is basically the original music written by Basil Kazan and Ray George, of blessed memory, but also corrected in the same manner as the Matins. In this updated, type-set edition of the Menaion, we have corrected the barring and accenting of the music, corrected the text according to Nassar, added various rubrics and instructions for the services according to the Typikon, added the names of the special melodies used for various stichera in Vespers and Matins, and added the ison to complete the style of Byzantine chant. The music presented here is to be used in conjunction with Kazan's Vespers and Matins Project, as well as Nassar.

I am eternally grateful to Deborah Abraham for doing the initial type-setting of the Menaion back in 2007; to Michael Farrow and Emily Lowe for their role in proofing the final editions of each month; to Chadi Karam for helping me along the way with the correct ison; and to Paul Jabara, our current chairman, for allowing me to finish this Project.

May God continue to bless you all as we sing His praises throughout the year, glorify His holy Name, honor His Saints and celebrate the Feast Days of the Holy Orthodox Church.

Yours in Christ,

(As always, consult your local Liturgical Guide for the specifics of that which is to follow.)

Read three Psalms only, from "Blessed is the man . . ." And on "O Lord, to thee have I cried . . .," sing 6 Proomia: 3 from the Pentecostarion from the week in which the Feast falls, and 3 for the Saints in Tone 4, as on pages 2-5 of this book.

Then sing the "Glory . . ." in Tone 2, as on pages 5 and 6 of this book, followed by "Both now . . ." and the Theotokion from the Pentecostarion. If the day falls during the Fast of the Apostles, then sing "Both now . . ." for our Lady in Tone 2, "O Virgin, verily the shadow . . ."

Sing "Gladsome Light," and the daily Prokeimenon. The Old Testament Readings are as follows:

- 1) 1 Kings 8:22-23, 27-30
- 2) Isaiah 61:10-62:5
- 3) Isaiah 60:1-16

Continue with the usual petitions up to the Aposticha.

Now sing the Aposticha in Tone 2, as on pages 7-9 of this book.

Now sing the "Glory . . .," as on pages 10 and 11 of this book.

Then sing "Both now . . ." and the Theotokion from the Pentecostarion from the week in which the Feast falls. Should it fall during the Fast of the Apostles, then sing "Both now . . ." to our Lady in Tone 8, "O Virgin, without groom . . .," as in the Byzantine Vesper Project by Kazan.

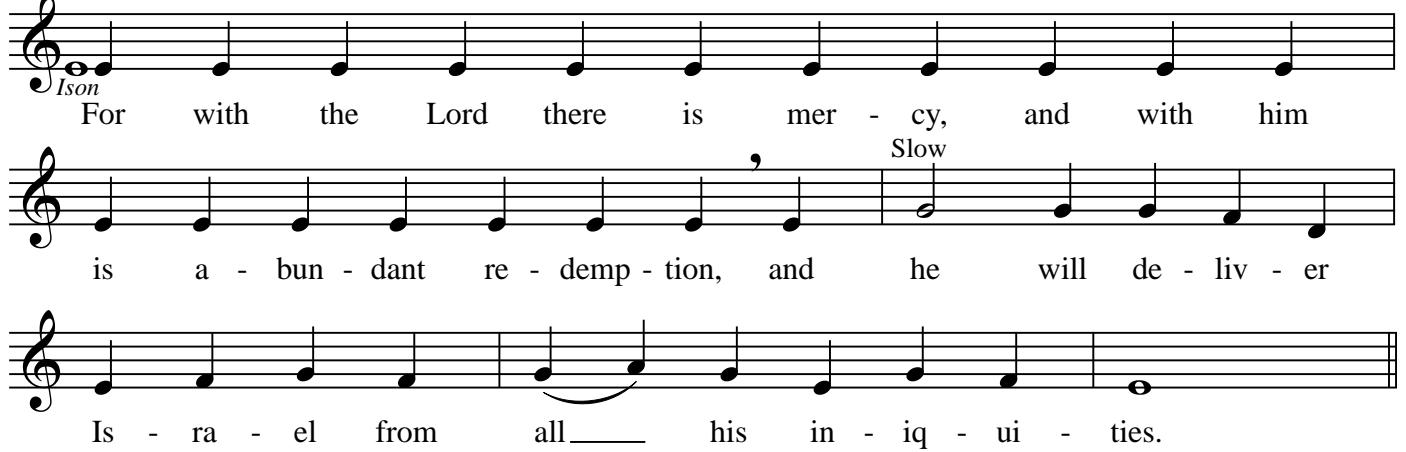

Then sing "St. Simeon's Prayer" and say the Trisagion Prayers.

Now continue with the Troparion of the Saints in Tone 8, as on page 12 of this book, followed by the Troparion from the Pentecostarion from the week in which it falls. If it be during the Fast of the Apostles, then sing instead the Theotokion from the Oktoekos in Tone 8.

Conclude with the end of Vespers as usual.

After "Blessed is the man...", on "O Lord, to thee have I cried," chant six (6) Prosomia: 3 from the Pentecostarion from the week in which the Feast Falls; and the following 3 for the two Saints, in Tone 4.

Verse 4 - Fast

For with the Lord there is mer - cy, and with him is a - bun - dant re - demp - tion, and he will de - liv - er
Is - ra - el from all his in - iq - ui - ties.

Special melody: Unto them that fear thee
Prosomion 4

Thou hast grant - ed our king thy pre - cious Cross as a dear weap - on with which he reigned o - - - ver th earth in jus - - - tice, ra - di - at - ing true wor - ship, and by thy com - pas - sion, be - com - ing wor - thy of the king - dom of heav - en. Where - fore, with him, we glo - ri - fy thy phil - an - throp - ic dis - pen - sa - - - tion, O Al - might - y Je - - sus, Sav - ior of our souls.

Verse 5 - Fast Slow

Praise the Lord all ye na - tions; praise him all ye peo - ple.

Prosomion 5

Thou hast grant - - - ed thy pi - ous ser - vant, O Lov - er of man - kind, the wis - dom of Sol - o - mon, the meek - ness of Da - vid, and th Orth - o - dox - y of th A - pos -
- tles; since thou art King of kings and Lord of all lords. Where - fore, we glo - ri - fy 86

Hence - forth, O Christ - lov - er, Je - sus Christ, the Lov - er of man - kind, the Sav - ior of our _____ souls, hath pre - pared for thee the king - dom of heav - en.

Glory - Tone 2

Glo - - - - ry to the Fa - ther and to the _____
Son and to the Ho - ly Spir - - - - it.
O Con - stan - tine, the dear and mag - ni - fied _____ king, thou re - ceiv - est from God the rich - ness of good _____ gifts, where - by thou didst ra - di - ate in good - ness; for hav - ing been il - lu - mi - nat - ed through Bap - tis - m with the rays of the most _____ Ho - ly Spir - - - - it, at the hands of Syl - ves - ter the Priest, thou — didst ap - pear un - van - quished a - mong — kings, of - fer - ing th in - hab - - - it - ed world to thy Cre - a - tor as a — dow - ry, as well — as the God - lov - ing reign - ing ci - - - ty.

 Where-fore, since thou hast at - tained fa - vor, thou dost still be - sech Christ — God to grant to all — those who cel - e - brate — thy me - mo - ri - al the for - giv - ness of sins and the Great — Mer - - - - - cy.

Sing "Both now..." from the Pentecostarion. If the day falls during the Fast of the Apostles, then sing "Both now..." for our Lady in Tone 2, "O Virgin, verily the shadow..." After Gladsome Light, the daily Prokeimenon, and the Old Testament Readings, continue with the usual petitions, and then the following Aposticha in Tone 2.

(Transposed up to the key of C, from G, for this special tone 2.)

Special melody: When he took thee

Prosomion 1

Thou ___ hast re - ceived from our Lord ___ Je - sus Christ, O Con - stan - tine, the first of Chris - tian kings, the scep - tre of ___ king - ship, be - cause his sav - - ing like - ness did ap - pear to thee hid - den in ___ th earth.
Where - fore, by ___ it, O bless - ed one, thou ___ didst sub - ju - gate all oth - er na - tions un - der the feet of the ___ faith - ful, a - dopt - - - - ing the life - - - giv - ing Cross as an un - con - quer - a - ble weap - on, and through it thou didst draw near ___ to our God.

Stichos 1

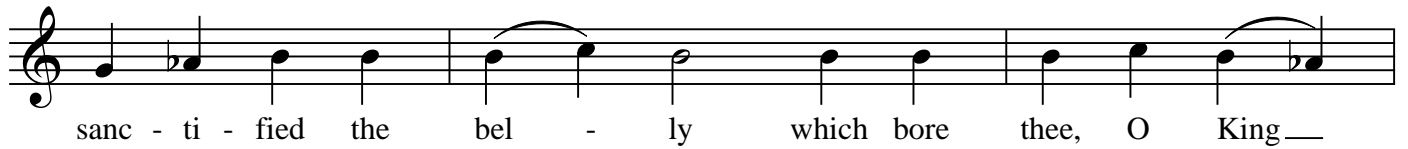

I have ex - alt - ed one chos - en out of my peo - ple.

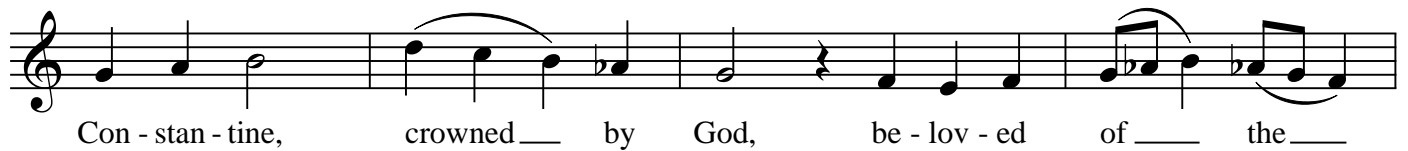

Prosimion 2

Ver - i - ly, how ___ bless - ed is the womb and sanc - ti - fied the bel - ly which bore thee, O King ___

Con - stan - tine, crowned ___ by God, be - lov - ed of ___ the ___ world, joy ___ of Christ - ians, glo - ry of be - liev - ers, the rich - ness of or - phans and wid - ows and their ___ cham - pi - on, the shelt - er of the hum - ble and weak, the stead - fast - ness of the sor - row - ful, and the de - liv' - rance of cap - - - - tives in ___ truth.

Stichos 2

There - fore, God, thy God, hath a - noint - ed thee.

Prosomion 3

Ver - i - ly, Hel - en, moth - er of th all - sweet branch, in - fat - u - at - ed by long - ing for and love of Christ, hath come hast - en - ing to ho - ly Zi - - on, to the ho - - - - ly place where our Sav - - - ior, by his own will, was cru - ci - fied to save us. And, hav - ing lift - ed the Cross, she cried with joy, Glo - ry to thee who hast grant - ed me what I had hoped for.

Glo - ry to the Fa - - - ther and to the
Son and to the Ho - ly Spir - - - it.
Like a bril - liant ray, like th eve - ning star, thou - - - wast - drawn a - way from faith - less - ness to faith in the God - head, and wast - - - priv - i - leged to sanc - ti - fy a peo - - - ple and a cit - y. And, hav - ing be - held the sign - - - of the Cross in heav - - - en, thou didst hear thence that - - - with it thou - - - should'st con - quer thine - - - en - e - mies.
Where - fore, thou - - - didst re - ceive the know - ledge of the Spir - it and wast a - noint - ed a priest and king, es - tab - lish - ing with mer - cy the Church of God, O fa - ther of Orth - o - dox kings, whose font doth well forth with heal - ing.

In - ter - cede thou, O Con - stan - tine, th e - qual of th A - pos - tles, for the sake of our souls.

Then sing "Both now ..." from the Pentecostarion from the week in which the Feast falls. Should it fall during the Fast of the Apostles, then sing "Both now ..." to our Lady in Tone 8, "O Virgin, without groom ...," as in the Byzantine Vesper Project by Kazan.

Con - stan - tine, who is thine A - pos - tle a - mong kings, O Lord, hav - ing be - held with his own eyes the sign of thy cross in heav - en, and like Paul hav - ing ac - cept - ed thy call not from man, en - trust - ed the reign - ing ci - ty to thy hands, de - liv - er - ing it with safe - ty for all time by th in - ter - ces - sions of the The - o - to - kos, O thou who art a - lone the Lov - er of man - kind.

(As always, consult your local Liturgical Guide for the specifics of that which is to follow.)

After "God the Lord hath appeared unto us . . . ," sing the Troparion of the Saints, as on page 12 of this book (and any other troparia according to the local tradition).

Now read the Kathismata, as on page 539 of The Divine Prayers and Services by Nassar.

Now sing the Anabathmoi, "From my youth . . . ," as on pages 63 and 64 of the Byzantine Matins Project by Kazan (without the Prokeimenon).

Now sing the Prokeimenon, as on page 14 of this book.

Now comes the Reading of the Gospel and Psalm 50, which is followed by the "Glory . . . ," and "Through the intercessions of the two crowned by God, O thou who art merciful . . . ," as on page 14 of this book. Then "Both now . . . ," and "Through the intercessions of the Theotokos . . . ," as on page 67 of the Byzantine Matins Project, followed by the "Have mercy upon me . . . ," as on page 15 of this book and the Idiomelon in Tone 2, also on page 15 of this book.

The Katabasiae are from the Pentecostarion for the week in which the feast falls. Should the feast fall during the Fast of the Apostles, then sing the Katabasiae of Our Lady, "I shall open my mouth . . . ," as on pages 72-80 in the Byzantine Matins Project.

Now sing the Exaposteilarion for the Paschal Feast (from the Pentecostarion, if there is any), followed by the Exaposteilarion of the Saints, as on page 16 of this book.

Follow the Byzantine Matins Project up to the Praises, including "Let everything that hath breath . . . ," and "Praise ye him, all his angels . . . ," in Tone 8, and then sing the Prosomia, as on pages 17-20 of this book.

Now the "Glory . . ." in Tone 8, as on pages 21 and 22 of this book.

Sing "Both now . . ." for the Paschal Feast (from the Pentecostarion), and if it should fall during the Fast of the Apostles, sing "Both now . . . ," as on page 22 of this book.

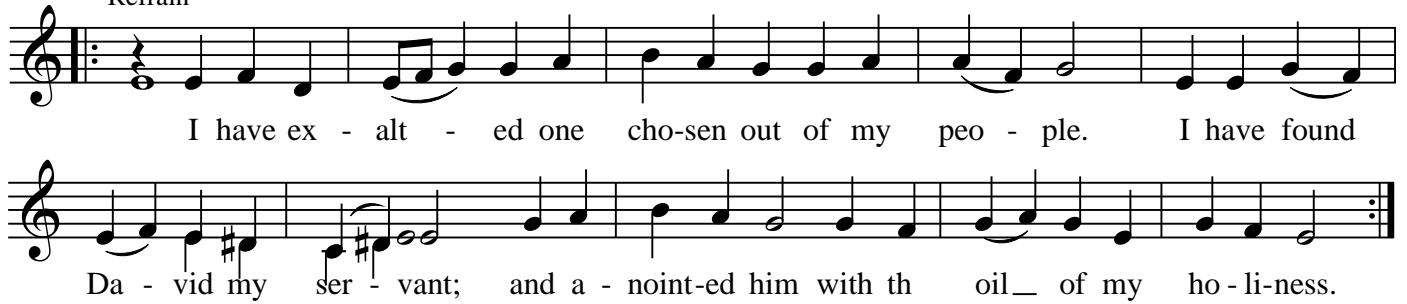

Now sing the Great Doxology in Tone 8, as on page 235 in the Byzantine Matins Project.

FOR THE DIVINE LITURGY:

The Communion Hymn is: "Their sound hath gone forth into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. Alleluia."

After "From my youth . . .," on pages 63-64 of the Byzantine Matins Project, sing the following Prokeimenon.

Refrain

I have ex - alt - ed one cho - sen out of my peo - ple. I have found Da - vid my ser - vant; and a - noint - ed him with th oil_ of my ho - li - ness.

Verse

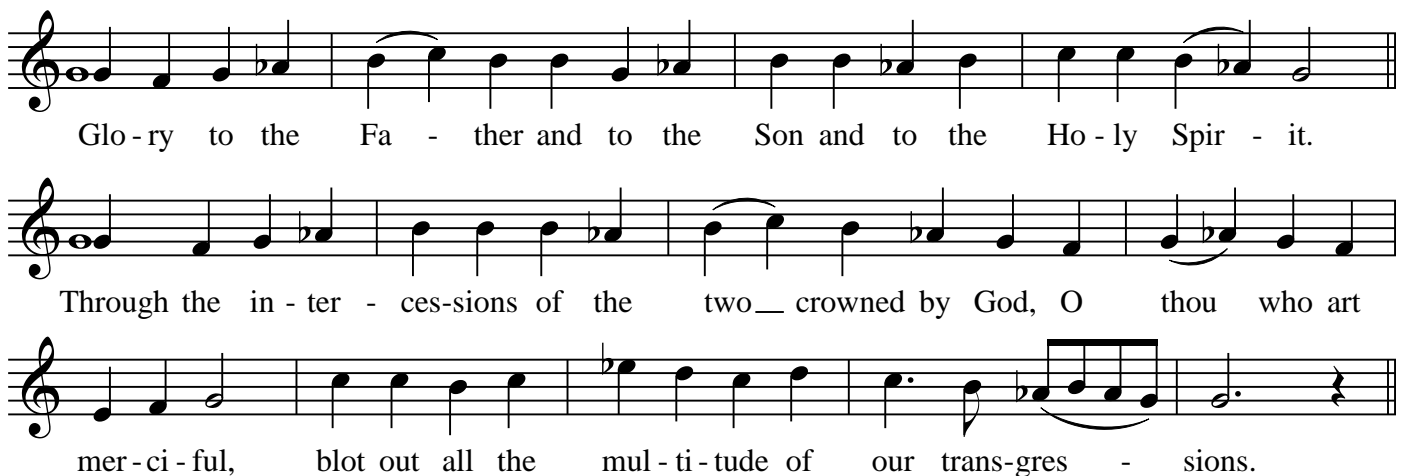

There - fore, God, thy God, hath a - noint - ed thee, with th oil of glad - ness.

Sing the Third Time

I have ex - alt - ed one cho - sen out of my peo - ple.
I have found Da - vid my ser - vant; and a - noint - ed him with th oil_ of my ho - li - ness.

After the reading of the Gospel and Psalm 50, then sing the following (which was not in the original).

Glo - ry to the Fa - ther and to the Son and to the Ho - ly Spir - it.
Through the in - ter - ces - sions of the two_ crowned by God, O thou who art mer - ci - ful, blot out all the mul - ti - tude of our trans - gres - sions.

Then sing "Both now . . .," and for the Theotokos, as usual, and then the following on page 15.

Fast

Have mer - cy up - on me, O God, ac - cord - ing to thy lov - ing kind - ness, ac - cord - ing to the mul - ti - tude

Slow

of thy ten - der mer - cies, blot out my trans - gres - sions.

Idiomelon - Tone 2

To - day hath the me - mo - ri - al of the pi - ous Con - stan - tine shone for us like out - - - pour - ing spice; for hav - ing longed for Christ he de - spised i - dols, e - rect - ing on earth a tem - ple to the One who was cru - ci - fied for our sakes. Where - fore, he at - tained the crown of hope in the heav - - - - ens.

The Katabasiae are from the Pentecostarion for the week in which the feast falls. Should the feast fall during the Fast of the Apostles, then sing the Katabasiae of Our Lady, "I shall open my mouth . . .," as on pages 72-80 in the Byzantine Matins Project. First sing the Exaposteilarion for the Paschal Feast (from the Pentecostarion, if there is any), then the following Exaposteilarion of the Saints.

Special melody: Upon that mount in Galilee

The great Con-stantine with his moth - er re - ceived not the maj - es - ty of king - ship from man - kind, but from di - vine grace; for hav - ing be - held the sign of the Cross ra - di - at - ing from heav - en, he van - quished there - with the ob - stin - ate, re - mov - ing the er - ror of i - dol - a try, and con - firm - ing in the world the Or - tho - dox faith.

Verse 1

This glo - ry shall be_____ to all his saints.

Prosimion 1

Special Melody: O strange wonder

Re - jice,_____ O all - wise___ Con - stan - tine, the

Slow

Glo - ry to the Fa - - - ther and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spir - - - it.
The King of kings and God, who a - dorn - eth the worth - y with rich gifts, hath caught thee, O Con - stan - tine, with the sign of the cross, as he did th ev - er - mem - 'ra - ble Paul, say - - ing, by this thou shalt con - - quer. And hav - ing sought him with thy god - ly - mind - ed moth - er and found him ac - cord - ing to thy de - sire, thou didst per - suade them.

Where - fore, with her, be - seech___ thou___ him
