For the Resurrection from the Octoechos in Tone Four

Verse 10. Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise Thy Name.

We worship untiringly Thy quickening Cross, O Christ God, and glorify Thy third-day Resurrection; for by it, O Almighty, Thou hast renewed the corrupt nature of mankind, and made plain to us the ascent to heaven; for Thou alone art good and the Lover of mankind.

Verse 9. The righteous shall wait for me until Thou recompense me.

When Thou wast willingly nailed upon the Cross, O Savior, Thou didst solve the problem caused by the tree of sin. And when Thou didst descend into Hades, Thou didst break the bonds of death, since Thou art a mighty God. Wherefore, we worship Thy Resurrection from the dead, shouting with joy, O Almighty Lord, glory to Thee.

Verse 8. Out of the depths have I cried to Thee, O Lord, Lord hear my voice.

Thou didst demolish by Thy Death, O Lord, the gates of Hades; Thou didst dissolve the realm of death; and didst free the human race from corruption, granting the world life and incorruptibility and Great Mercy.

Verse 7. Let Thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication.

Come, ye nations, let us praise the third-day Resurrection of the Savior, by which we were delivered from the unbreakable bonds of Hades, and by which we have all received life and incorruption, crying, O Thou Who wast crucified, buried, and Who didst rise, save us by Thy Resurrection, O Thou only Lover of mankind.

Verse 6. If Thou, O Lord, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand? For with Thee there is forgiveness.

Verily, the angels and men, O Savior, praise Thy third-day Resurrection, through which the ends of the universe have been lighted, and by which Thou hast redeemed from bondage to the enemy us who cry, saying: O omnipotent Giver of life, save us by Thy Resurrection, O Lover of mankind.

Verse 5. Because of Thy Name have I waited for Thee, O Lord; my soul hath waited upon Thy word, my soul hath hoped in the Lord.

Thou hast demolished the brazen gates, O Christ God, and hast shattered the bars, and hast raised the fallen human race and made it to stand upright. Wherefore, do we shout to Thee in unison, O Thou rising from the dead, O Lord, glory to Thee.

Verse 4. From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch let Israel trust in the Lord. Thy birth from Thy Father, O Lord, is eternal and timeless; and Thine Incarnation from the Virgin is inexplicable and ineffable; and Thy descent into Hades is awe-inspiring to Satan and his angels; for Thou didst trample down death and didst rise on the third day, granting mankind incorruptibility and Great Mercy.

(HTM July Menaion 51)

For St. Pankratios in Tone Two (When he took Thee)

Verse 3. For with the Lord there is mercy and with Him is abundant redemption, and He will deliver Israel from all his iniquities.

As he went about throughout the world, * he that was the Rock of disciples supported all with his strength; * then he found thee as a precious gem and made of thee * a foundation-stone of the Church, * O all-blessed Father, * overturning idols' temples and their monuments * by the sovereign strength and divine might * of the Word of God, Whose good pleasure * it had been to dwell among men in the flesh.

Verse 2. Praise the Lord, all ye nations; praise Him, all ye people.

When thou by thy word hadst put to flight * foul and wicked spirits of evil, then by the Good Spirit's grace * thou didst make men spiritual, O wise Pankratios; * and on tilling the furrows of * their hearts, O blest Martyr, * thou didst sow the God-bestowed and saving seed in them; * whom thou didst then offer to Christ God, * the Celestial Husbandman, ever * interceding for those praising thee with faith.

Verse 1. For His mercy is great toward us, and the truth of the Lord endureth forever.

With noetic rays of fiery light, * thou didst make the West a bright Orient all ablaze with the sun * of God-given knowledge of Him Who fawned forth on us * from a Virgin ineffably; * and setting in contest, * thou hast dawned in light unwaning, where the looking-glass * hath been done away and thou seest * Him Who set thy contest, O Father, * in His longed-for beauty, O Pankratios.

(Nassar 161; Kazan Vesp. 56-57)

David the Prophet who became through thee, O Theotokos, the grandparent of God, before time sang of thee in praise, and shouted to Him who worked wonders through thee, saying, The queen did rise on Thy right; for God hath shown thee to be a Mother bringing forth life, in that He was willing to appear incarnate from thee without father, renewing the creation of His likeness, corrupt with suffering, in order to find the sheep lost in the hills, and carry it on His shoulders, and offer it to the Father, and add it, through His will, to the heavenly hosts, and to save the whole world; for He is the reigning Christ, Possessor of rich and Great Mercy.

- 4.) The Entrance is made with the censer, and we chant “O Gladsome Light ...” (Chant) (Choral) followed by the Prokeimenon “The Lord is King ...” in Tone 6 with its stichoi.

APOSTICHA FOR THE RESURRECTION IN TONE FOUR

When Thou wast lifted up upon the Cross, O Lord, Thou didst expunge our ancestral curse; and when Thou didst descend to Hades, Thou didst free those who were bound from eternity, granting the human race incorruptibility. Wherefore, we offer praise, glorifying Thy third-day Resurrection.

Verse 1. The Lord is King, and hath clothed Himself with majesty. The Lord is robed; He is girded with strength.

O Thou Who alone art mighty, when Thou wast fastened upon a Tree, Thou didst shake the whole earth; and when Thou wast laid in the grave, Thou didst raise those who lay in the graves, granting mankind life and incorruptibility. Wherefore, we offer praise, glorifying Thy third-day Resurrection.

Verse 2. For He has established the world so that it shall never be moved.

The law-transgressing people, O Christ, delivered Thee to Pilate, who condemned Thee to crucifixion. Thus the ingrate appeared before his Benefactor. But Thou sufferedst burial willingly, and didst rise on the third day by Thine own power; for Thou art God, granting us endless and Great Mercy.

Verse 3. Holiness befits Thy house, O Lord, forevermore.

Verily, the women reached Thy tomb seeking Thee with tears. And when they found Thee not they shouted and wailed, saying: Woe to us, O our Savior, King of all, how wast Thou stolen? And what place containeth Thy life-bearing body? And an angel answered them, saying: Weep not, but go preach that the Lord hath risen, granting us joy; for He alone is compassionate.

(Nassar 162; Kazan Vesp. 136-137)

THEOTOKION FOR THE RESURRECTION IN TONE FOUR

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

O thou who art free from all blemish, hear the petitions of thy servants, removing from us the difficulties that rise against us, and delivering us from all sorrows; for thou alone art a safe and secure haven; and we have secured thee as an intercessor. Therefore, we who call upon thee shall never be put to shame. Hasten to fulfill the pleadings of those who cry to thee in faith: Rejoice, O Lady, the help of all, O joy, protection, and salvation of our souls.

7.) We then say the Prayer of St. Simeon (Chant) (Choral) and the Trisagion Prayers. Then, we chant the apolytikia of the day.

- 7.) The Poetic Kathismata are from the Octoechos for Tone 4 (Nassar 163-164; Kazan Orth. 36).

FOURTH TONE RESURRECTIONAL KATHISMATA (Plain Reading)

First Kathisma

The ointment-bearing women glanced into the entrance of the tomb; and, because they could not bear the brilliance of the angel, they trembled in astonishment, saying, Hath He been stolen Who opened paradise to the thief? Or is He risen up, Who before His Passion didst preach Resurrection? Verily, Christ God hath risen, granting Resurrection and life to those who are in Hades.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Thou hast suffered crucifixion willingly, O Savior, and mortal men placed in a new tomb Thee Who didst establish the corners of the world with a word. Therefore, hath death the stranger been bound and taken captive, being defeated. And all those in Hades, cried out through Thy reviving Resurrection, Verily, Christ the Life-giver is risen; for He is everlastingly constant.

Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Thy betrothed and guardian, O Theotokos, when he beheld thy supernatural Conception without seed, was amazed and perplexed. But he recalled to his mind the rain falling on the fleece of wool, and the bush burning with fire but not consumed, and he testified before the priests crying, A Virgin giving birth, and after remaining virgin.

Second Kathisma

Thou didst rise from the tomb, O Christ Savior, our God, because Thou art deathless; and Thou didst raise with Thee Thy world by Thy Resurrection, and didst crush the might of death, proclaiming Resurrection to all. Wherefore, do we glorify Thee, O Thou Who alone art merciful and the Lover of mankind.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Gabriel descended from his sublime height wrapped in a white robe, and came to the stone where the Rock of Life was, and he shouted to the weeping women, saying, Cease your wailing and crying, and receive ye smiling joy, with comfort; for He whom ye seek weeping is verily risen. Wherefore, go and proclaim to the Apostles that the Lord is risen.

Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

All the ranks of the angels, O thou who art undefiled, have been dazzled by the secret of thy dreadful birth-giving; that the All-encompassing at a sign from Him was encompassed in thy bosom as a babe, and that He Who is before eternity received a temporal beginning, and that He who feedeth every living breath with His ineffable goodness was nourished with milk. Wherefore, did they glorify thee with praise; for thou art truly the Theotokos.

- 8.) Benedictions \(Evlogetaria\) in Tone 5. (Red Service Book 62-63; Kazan Orthros 41-44)
- 9.) The Little Litany and the priest's exclamation "For blessed is Thy Name..."
- 10.) The Hypakoë, Anabathmoi and the Prokeimenon with its accompanying stichos are all from the Octoechos for Tone 4. (Nassar 164-165; Kazan Orthros 52-53)
- 11.) The priest's exclamation "For Holy art Thou, O our God, Who restest in the Holy Place," and the choir sings in Tone 2:

LET EVERYTHING THAT HATH BREATH

Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord. (TWICE)

Stichos: Praise ye God in His saints; praise Him in the firm foundation of His power.

Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord.

- 12.) The fifth Eothinon Gospel (Luke 24:12-35) is chanted from the Holy Table.
- 13.) *We read "In that we have beheld the Resurrection of Christ ..." (Kazan Orthros 66)
In the last line of this prayer in several Archdiocesan publications, there is an erroneous omission. It should read: "for in that He endured the Cross for us, He hath destroyed death by death." Please make this correction in your books.*
- 14.) We read Psalm 50. (Nassar, 82; Serv. Bk., 66; Kazan Sun. Mat., 66)
- 15.) Troparia following Psalm 50 as usual. (Serv. Bk., 67; Kazan Sun. Mat., 67-68)
- 16.) Next follows the Intercession for Orthros.

THE INTERCESSION¹

The choir sings “Lord, have mercy” twelve times, and the priest exclaims “Through the mercies and compassions...”

17.) Next follows the Kontakion, Oikos and Synaxarion.

FOURTH TONE RESURRECTIONAL KONTAKION AND OIKOS (Plain Reading)

My Savior and Redeemer, as God Thou hast raised from the grave all those who were in chains, and hast shattered the gates of Hades. As Lord, Thou didst arise on the third day.

Let us all give praise and with thanks let us offer unceasing praises to Christ, the giver of Life Who didst arise from the dead on the third day. Today, He hath shattered the gates of death, put Hades to death, broken the sting of death, and set Adam and Eve free. Let us sing to Him, all ye people, and with thanks let us offer Him unceasing praise. For as the only sovereign God and Master, He arose on the third day.

THE SYNAXARION (Plain Reading)

On July 9 in the Holy Orthodox Church, we commemorate the Hieromartyr Pankratios, bishop of Taormina in Sicily, and disciple of the Holy Apostle Peter.

Verses

Pankratios, having set himself as foundation,
Raised upon it a house from the stones of his contest.
On the ninth, Pankratios saw the house of the Almighty.

This saint was born in Antioch during the time when the Lord Jesus Christ walked as a man on earth. Hearing about the miracles of Christ, the parents of Pankratios desired to see the Lord. Together with Pankratios, they traveled to Jerusalem where they saw Jesus, heard His words and witnessed His miracles. While there, Pankratios met the Apostle Peter. After the Ascension of the Lord, both parents and Pankratios were baptized in Antioch. Later, the Apostles Peter and Paul appointed Pankratios as the Bishop of Taormina in Sicily. There he worked many miracles, destroyed the idols, baptized the unbaptized, strengthened the baptized and governed well the Church of God. A heathen commander, Aquilinus, heard that the entire city of Taormina became Christian and set out with an army to destroy it. Pankratios went with the clergy outside the city carrying the invincible weapon, the Honorable Cross. When the army approached the city, darkness befell them and the soldiers were overcome with great fear. Confused, the attackers turned against one another and slaughtered each other. In the end, Pankratios was stoned to death by envious and evil heathens and found rest in the Lord.

On this day, we also commemorate the Martyrs Andrew and Probus; Venerable Dionysios the Orator, first settler of Small St. Anne skete on Athos, and his disciple Venerable Metrophanes. By the intercessions of Thy Saints, O Christ God, have mercy upon us. Amen.

18.) We chant the katavasias of the Akathist Canon (Red Service Book 68-69, Kazan Orthros 72-75), followed by the magnificat "More honorable" (Red Service Book 70, Kazan Orthros 76-80) and then the ninth katavasia of the Akathist Canon.

KATAVASIAS OF THE AKATHIST CANON IN TONE FOUR

Ode 3. As a living and copious fountain, O Theotokos, do thou strengthen those who hymn thy praises, and are joined together in spiritual company for thy service; and in thy divine glory make them worthy of crowns of glory.

Ode 4. He Who sits in clouds of glory upon the throne of Godhead, Jesus the most high God, came with mighty hand and saved those who cried out unto Him: Glory to Thy power, O Christ.

Ode 5. All creation was amazed at thy divine glory, for thou, O unwedded Virgin, didst hold in thee the God of all, and didst bear the Eternal Son, Who rewards with salvation all those who hymn thy praises.

Ode 6. As we the Godly-minded, celebrate this divine and all-honorable feast of the Mother of God: come, let us clap our hands together and glorify the God Whom she bore.

Ode 7. The Godly-minded children worshipped not the creature rather than the Creator, but trampling upon the threat of fire in manly fashion, they rejoiced and sang: O All-praised Lord and God of our Fathers, blessed art Thou.

We praise, we bless, and we worship the Lord.

Ode 8. The three holy children in the furnace the Child of the Theotokos saved; then was the type, now is its fulfillment, and the whole world gathers to sing: All ye works praise the Lord and magnify Him unto all ages.

Deacon: The Theotokos and Mother of the Light let us honor and magnify in song.

MAGNIFICATIONS IN TONE FOUR

Choir: My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior.

Refrain: More honorable than the Cherubim, and more glorious beyond compare than the Seraphim, thou who without corruption barest God the Word, and art truly Theotokos, we magnify thee. (Repeat after each Verse.)

+ For He hath regarded the lowliness of His handmaiden; for behold from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed. (Refrain)

+ For He that is mighty hath magnified me, and holy is His Name; and His mercy is on them that fear Him, throughout all generations. (Refrain)

+ He hath showed strength with His arm; He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. (Refrain)

- + He hath put down the mighty from their seat, and hath exalted the humble and meek. He hath filled the empty with good things, and the rich hath He sent empty away. (Refrain)
- + He remembering His mercy hath helped His servant Israel, as He promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed forever. (Refrain)

Ode 9. Let all the earth-born mortals rejoice in the Spirit, bearing their lamps. And let the nature of bodiless Minds celebrate with honor the holy festival of the Mother of God, and cry out: Hail! All-blessed, pure, and ever-virgin Theotokos!

- 19.) The Little Litany and the priest's exclamation "For all the powers of Heaven..."
- 20.) Exaposteilaria: we chant "Holy is the Lord our God" (thrice) and "Exalt ye the Lord..." (Kazan Orthros 81). Then we chant the following:

(Nassar 206-207; Kazan Orthros 90-91)

THE FIFTH EOTHINON EXAPOSTEILARION IN TONE TWO

Verily, Christ who is the Way and the Life, after His Resurrection from the dead, accompanied Luke and Cleopas, who had recognized Him at Emmaus, in the breaking of the bread, whose hearts and souls were inflamed as He spake to them in the way, explaining to them from the books about all that He had suffered. Let us, therefore, shout with them crying: Verily, the Lord hath risen and appeared unto Peter.

THE FIFTH EOTHINON THEOTOKION IN TONE TWO

I praise Thy countless mercy, my Creator; for Thou didst empty Thyself to put on the suffering nature of mankind, and to save it. And whereas Thou art God, Thou didst consent for my sake to become like me from the pure Maiden of God, and to descend to Hades, willing to save me by the intercession of Thy Mother, O all-compassionate Lord.

- 21.) We chant "The Praises" in Tone 4 with eight troparia:

(Nassar 165-166; Kazan Orth. 127-134)

For the Resurrection from the Octoechos in Tone Four

Verse 1. This glory shall be to all His saints.

We glorify Thy Resurrection, O Lord Almighty, O Thou who sufferedst crucifixion and death and didst rise from the dead.

Verse 2. Praise God in His sanctuary: praise Him in the firmament of His power.

Thou hast freed us, O Christ, from the first curse. And by Thy Death Thou didst banish the insurgency of Diabolus prevailing over our nature. And in Thy Resurrection Thou didst fill all with joy. Wherefore, we cry to Thee, O Thou Lord, Who didst rise from the dead; glory to Thee.

Verse 3. Praise Him for His mighty acts: praise Him according to His excellent greatness.

O Christ Savior, Who didst rise from the dead, lead us by Thy Cross to Thy right hand, and save us from the gins of the enemy. Stretch forth Thine arm and raise us who are fallen in sins; through the intercession of Thy saints, O Lord, the Lover of mankind.

Verse 4. Praise Him with the sound of the trumpet. Praise Him with the psaltery and harp.

O Only Son of God, Thou didst come to earth, but wast not separated from the Paternal bosom; and because of Thy love to mankind Thou didst become unchangeable man. Thou didst suffer crucifixion and death in the flesh, O Thou Who in Thy Divinity suffereth not. Thou didst rise from the dead, granting mankind immortality; for Thou alone art Almighty.

Verse 5. Praise Him with the timbrel and dance; praise Him with stringed instruments and organs.

Thou didst purchase for us deathlessness, O Savior, when Thou didst accept death bodily. Thou didst dwell in a grave to deliver us from Hades, raising us with Thee; for as man Thou didst suffer, but since Thou art God Thou didst arise. Therefore, do we shout, Glory to Thee, O Lord, Giver of life, Who art alone the Lover of mankind.

Verse 6. Praise Him upon the loud cymbals: praise Him upon the high-sounding cymbals. Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord.

When Thy cross, O Savior, was planted in Golgotha, the rocks were split asunder; and when Thou wast placed in a grave like the dead, the gate-keepers of Hades were afraid; for Thou didst abolish the might of death, and in Thy Resurrection Thou didst bestow incorruptibility on all the dead. Wherefore, O Lord, Giver of life, glory to Thee.

Verse 7. Arise, O my God, lift up Thy hand, and forget not the humble.

The women, O Christ God, desired to behold Thy Resurrection. And Mary Magdalene went ahead of them, and she found the stone rolled from the grave, and she saw the angel sitting thereon, who said: Why seek ye the living among the dead? Verily, He hath risen to save all creation; for He is God.

Verse 8. I will praise Thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: I will show all Thy marvelous works.

Say, O Jews, where is Jesus Whom ye thought ye were guarding? Where is He Whom ye had thrown into the grave, and sealed thereto the stone? Give us the dead One, O deniers of life. Give us the buried One, or else believe in the risen One. And if ye keep silent about the Resurrection, the stone shall proclaim it, even that stone which was rolled away from the door of the tomb. Albeit great is Thy mercy, and great is the mystery of Thy dispensation; O Savior, glory to Thee.

(Nassar 207; Kazan Orthros 179-181)

THE FIFTH EOTHINON DOXASTICON IN TONE FIVE

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

How wise are Thy judgments, O Christ, in that Thou didst grant Peter to understand Thy Resurrection by the coffin wrappings alone; whereas Luke and Cleopas Thou didst accompany conversing; and as Thou didst so Thou didst not reveal Thyself to them, and Thou wast taunted by them as though Thou alone wert a stranger in Jerusalem, not knowing what had happened therein of late. But since Thou ordainest all things in conformity with Thy creation, Thou didst explain to them what the Prophets had uttered concerning Thee, and in the breaking of the bread they knew Thee after their hearts were aflame for Thy knowledge; and when they came together with the Disciples they proclaimed openly the Resurrection, by which have mercy upon us.

Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Most blessed art thou, O Virgin Theotokos, for through Him that was incarnate of thee is Hades despoiled, Adam is recalled from the dead, the curse is made void, Eve is set free, death is slain, and we are endowed with life. Wherefore, in hymns of praise, we cry aloud: Blessed art Thou, O Christ our God, Who is thus well pleased, glory to Thee.

22.) We chant the Great Doxology in Tone 5 (Red Service Book 75-76, Kazan 220-223), followed by:

(Red Service Book 76; Kazan Orthros 219)

TROPARION IN TONE FOUR

Today is Salvation come into the world. Let us sing praises to Him Who arose from the grave, the Author of our life; for having by Death destroyed death, He hath given us victory and Great Mercy.
