

Pentecostarion
SUNDAY OF ALL SAINTS
Orthros (Matins) Praises

Byzantine Mode 4
Special Melody: As one valiant

1,2. Christ the Lord hath made won-drous all of His Saints that were
3. Let the proph - ets, a - pos - tles, and all the right - eous, the 4. Since by means of their vir - tues' light they made earth to be on the earth, for these bless - ed ones re - ceived in their ver - y flesh teach - ers with all the Hier - o - mar - tirs, the just, and fer - vent choirs heav - en - ly, and in their great strug - gles did em - u - late Christ's death,

His wounds and suf - fer - ings and have been ar - rayed there - with of wom - en who did con - test and those who strove in as - and since they trav - elled that path, the cause of true im - mor - splen - did - ly. And they stand man - i - fest - ly decked out with di - vine

- cet - ic deeds, yea, that mul - ti - tude of saints, and the hosts of the
- tal - i - ty, and ex - cised our mor - tal ills by the mar - vel - ous

5 D E

come - li - ness. Let us there-fore praise and ac - claim them as un-with-right-eous ones, let them all be praised with most sa - cred hymns, for they sur - ger - y of the grace of God, let the Mar - tyrs, who did con-

6 G

- er - ing blos - soms and as will - ing sac - ri - fic - es, have in - her - it - ed the King - dom in the high - est,
- test through - out the world whole-heart - ed - ly and nob - ly,

7 D E

and as un - er - ring stars of the Church.
and they a - bide_____ now in Par - a - dise.
be laud - ed now_____ and ac - claimed with hymns.